EXPLANATION OF BILLING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Please Read the Information on the Next Two Pages and Sign at the Bottom of Both.
Signatures are Required to Begin the Consultation.

We are giving this explanation of our billing procedures to you as a potential client. Please do not hesitate to ask us any questions you may have regarding our usual billing practices. If you retain Ritter Elder Law & Estate Planning, the terms contained herein shall be incorporated by reference into the fee agreement.

1. Attorney's Fees. Fees are based on the time it takes to perform your services and are calculated at the attorney's or staff member's hourly rate. The hourly rates are $375.00 per hour for Brian W. Ritter, Jr., Esq., $300.00 per hour for RELEP's Medicaid Specialist, $300.00 per hour for RELEP's Nurse Practitioner, and per hour $250.00 per hour for paralegals and law clerks. If retained on an hourly matter, time is kept in 1/10 of an hour increments. Internally, time is recorded for all services rendered on your behalf, including, but not limited to, research, drafting, document review, telephone and office conferences, conferences with attorneys within the firm and outside the firm, correspondence (including e-mail correspondence), execution of documents, preparing and filing estate administration documents with the court, and if any matter requires litigation, drafting and filing pleadings, appearing at court and depositions, trial preparation, and trial or making the proper referral to a better suited attorney to handle your matter.

2. Fixed Fee Work. Much of the work RELEP prepares is on a "fixed fee" basis, meaning you pay one flat rate for the documents, phone calls, emails, and two meetings (three meetings for trust matters). Generally, if you retain RELEP to perform work on a fixed fee basis, you will not receive a monthly statement. You will be responsible to pay the full amount upon the signing of the retainer agreement. The full fee will be deemed earned upon the drafting of the documents and RELEP sending them to you for review. It will be on you to ensure a signing appointment is scheduled.

3. Consultation Fee and Estimates. We do not offer a "free initial consultation" other than for time discussing our qualifications and services. Mr. Ritter charges $375.00 per hour as a consultation rate, with a minimum of one-hour payment due before the consultation begins. Typically, consultations last an hour and half for basic estate planning matters and up to two hours for trust or Medicaid matters; however, any estimate given for services merely an estimate and may last shorter or longer. Completion of your services may take more or less time than originally estimated depending on your individual needs. If you retain Mr. Ritter to complete a "documents package," then the consultation fee will be waived. After conducting an initial consultation where the information provided above is reviewed and verified, Mr. Ritter will provide you with a fee estimate for estate planning work. Please keep in mind this is just an estimate and is subject to change based upon changes to the scope of work that may occur as the representation continues. Your completion and our review of a client intake form does not, in itself, constitute the creation of any attorney-client relationship until you have asked us to perform work on your behalf.

4. Expenses. These are out-of-pocket expenses the firm incurs during the performance of your legal services for which you will be billed. Costs include, but are not limited to, such things as filing fees, costs of obtaining, appraisals, recording fees, heir searches, postage and courier fees, photocopies, and transportation. This list is not exhaustive and costs may be incurred for items other than these examples. If any expenses are incurred, you will be provided an invoice at the conclusion of the representation showing the amount owed for the outstanding expenses.

5. Monthly Statements. Our billing cycle is from the first day of the month to the last day of the month. If you retain Mr. Ritter on an hourly matter, you will customarily receive a statement around the middle of each month which will include a summary billing for the services rendered and costs incurred for the previous month. RELEP does not send statements on fixed fee work. Any fees paid in advance will be held in a Maryland attorney's trust account until earned.

If you ever have questions about your bill, we are always available to discuss it. We do not charge for time spent discussing billing matters.

PLEASE SIGN BELOW AND BRING THIS PACKET WITH YOU TO YOUR CONSULTATION.

Thanks and we look forward to meeting with you!

INFORMED CONSENT AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST WAIVER

Dual Spouse Representation in Estate Planning Matters

Spouses can have differing, and sometimes conflicting, interests and objectives regarding your matter. For example, they may have different views on how property should pass after the death of one or both of them. In some situations, we may recommend that holdings be restructured to take advantage of tax benefits, which may involve gifts from one spouse to the other. Also, planning can involve advice as to classification of property under state law. These are just a few general examples, and each couple's situation is unique.

If you each had a separate lawyer, you would each have an "advocate" for your position and would receive totally independent advice. Information given to your own lawyer is confidential and cannot be obtained by your spouse without your written consent. That is not the case when one firm advises both of you. Although your objectives related to your matter do not indicate that a conflict will arise, we cannot be an advocate for one of you against the other. Information that either of you gives us relating to your planning cannot be kept from the other. If you ask us to continue to serve you jointly, our effort will be to assist in developing a coordinated overall plan and to encourage the resolution of differing interests in an equitable manner and in the best interests of your family. If at any time either of you wishes to have the advice of separate counsel, you are completely free to do so.

Waiver Consent

I, the undersigned, after reading the above, hereby understand the potential conflicts described above and waive any potential conflicts that may arise during representation. I further understand that if a conflict does arise, I have the right to end the representation and seek alternative counsel.
